Pull Up The Cork

Ini Kamoze

Pull up the cork and pour it on
'Tis the beginning of a new dawn
Bring in the wheat and bring in the corn
Inhibition is going, going, gone, all gone, goneSome people want to say it isn't good for me
Hear wha dem seh
"How can ya talk when ya don't have a talk degree?"
Hey, but I don't need no glasses to see, no
How to juggle, to come out of any meleeHey, pull up the cork and pour it on
'Tis the beginning of a new dawn
Bring in the wheat and bring in the corn
Inhibition is going, going, gone, all gone, goneAnother 'tician is giving another address
In my condition, oh, I can't deal with no distress
Seems to me you will agree we need another hero
Someone to front it, bigger than a GeronimoPull up the cork and pour it on
'Tis the beginning of a new dawn
First the wheat and then now the corn
Inhibition is going, going, goneSome people would say it isn't good for me
Hear wha dem seh
"How can ya talk when ya don't have a talk degree?"
But I don't need no glasses to see, no
How to juggle to come out of any meleeHey, pull up the cork and pour it on
'Tis the beginning of a new dawn
Bring in the wheat and bring in the corn
Prohibition is going, going, gone, all gone, gonePull up the cork and pour it on
'Tis the beginning of a new dawn
Bring in the wheat and bring in the corn
All the stoppers have, they're going, going, gonePull up the cork
'Tis a beginning
Bring in the wheat
ProhibitionPull up the cork
'Tis a beginning
Bring in the wheat
All the stoppers havePull up the cork
Bring in the wheat
'Tis a beginning
All the stoppers have, gone, gone, all gonePull up the cork
'Tis a beginning of
