Headgames

Grim Skunk

Nuff people tell pure lies
Some of them will come with plastic smiles
Some of them have deceptive eyes
Some of them will play with your mind
I've seen from time to time
You walk that crooked line
Protecting all that yours and stealing what is mineAnd I'm so tired of the games that your play'n
And I'm so tired of the shit that your say'n
What you say is never done
Deception by the ton
Honesty there's never none
Your judgement soon will comeI'm so tired of the head games, head games
I'm so tired of the head games that you playThose who show no love
Exploit false god above
The kind that sneak and cheat
And eat the small and weak
