

Winter Pageant

Aromabar

Was it really so long ago
we were taking photographs of each other in a winter pageant cloth?

Skipping score goin home running for shelter
from a sudden thunder storm kissing raindrops on your nose

What card did I play
making you the way you are?
What more can I say
to convince you?
You didn't have to go so far

In the pageant where I live the unit breaks away now I'll probably never see you again

Wondering where you went Where did you go?
What did you say?
Do you ever think of me
and all that time we spent?

What card did I play
making you the way you are?
What more can I say
to convince you?
You didn't have to go so far
