

What I've Become

Ashlee Simpson

I walk alone inside these walls and it's not easy being me
Seems like every time I escape there's another following
Me, I'm running, now they're coming, I can feel them shooting me
Without asking lights are flashing but I guess thatIt's what I've become
Let me live as who I am
Never wanted nothing
But you don't let me breathe as who I amI've just begun, I've just begun
I've just begun to find my way
I've just begun, I've just begun
I've just begun to find my wayIn the chase, I know I'm wanted, hey, look I'm no victim
It'd be nice to make some mistakes without observations
Or opinions of distortions, seeing what you're believing
It's a shame that all these blessings could be a curse?It's what I've become
Let me live as who I am
Never wanted nothing
But you don't let me breathe as who I amI've just begun, I've just begun
I've just begun to find my way
I've just begun, I've just begun
I've just begun to find my wayThere's not a pill to take to save you from this heartache
But I have no regrets, I'm hoping for a better day
There's not a pill to take to save you from this heartache
But I have no regrets, I'm hoping for a better dayIt's what I've become
Let me live as who I am
Never wanted nothing
But you don't let me breathe as who I amIt's what I've become
Let me live as who I am
Never wanted nothing
But you don't let me breathe as who I amI've just begun, I've just begun
I've just begun to find my way
I've just begun, I've just begun
I've just begun to find my way
