

She Came Shining (Live 2012) [Bonus Track]

Pavlov's Dog

I used to see light in your eyes
But I don't see it anymore
And all those promises you made to me
I don't need them anymoreI used to waste
Hours in bed
And I came to close to follow
Follow you downI used to phone you thousands of times
And now you never seem to call
And all the songs that I've sung to you
I don't sing them anymoreI used to waste
Hours in bed
And I came to close to follow
Follow you down
And I'm leaving cause I'm all over you
