This Time Nothing Is Sacred

Bleeding Through

Am I not presentable for you?
Do I not represent what you thought you knew?
No, no longer care
No, I don't believe our
Friendship was sacred and meant anythingSo what's your reasons for burning me alive?
Looking back, I fail to see
Do you remember starvation and sleepless nights?
Well, I guess that it ceased
To mean a goddamn thingGive me a reason
To finally throw you away
I thought this blood would be thicker
Nothing left for you to sayYour nothing more than a face
I used to know
This time I
Will erase all the memories
This time I
Will push you out of my fucking heartI was never good enough for you
I don't admire all the things that you do
No, no longer care
No, I don't believe the
Bond that we shared meant nothingSo what's your reasons for burning me alive?
Looking back, I fail to see
Do you remember starvation and sleepless nights?
Well, I guess that it ceased
To mean a goddamn thingGive me a reason
To finally throw you away
I thought this blood would be thicker
Nothing left for you to sayThis time I
Will erase all the memories
This time I
Will push you out of my fucking heart
