

Dancing On My Own Ground

Gowan

I must confess
I more or less
Have played your last request
I took a trip
Aboard your ship
Well, now we're back, I guess When I let you tempt me
Did I think my tank was empty
Or just running low?
Don't know
One too many pieces missing
Had to learn how not to listen
Now I know
I've finally come around
Dancing on my own ground again
All that I'd lost I found
Dancing on my own ground again
And I'm all right On my return
The bridge was burned
But some self-respect I'd earned
And no more betrayed
No judges paid
Another page has turned Many stars have fallen
'Cause they thought they heard the calling
From a better place
Yeah, yeah
Tumbling ever after
To the echoed hollow laughter
But they're lost in space
I've finally come around
Dancing on my own ground again
All that I'd lost I found
Dancing on my own ground again
And I'm all right When I let you tempt me
Did I think my tank was empty
Or just running low?
Oh
Were one too many pieces missing
Had to learn how not to listen
Now I know Dancing on my own ground again

Love me or shoot me down
I'm dancing on my own ground again
And I'm all right, yeah, yeahDancing on my own ground again
Love me or shoot me down
Dancing on my own ground again
And I'm all right
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeahDancing on my own ground again
And I'm all right
