Labyrinth

Patchouli

Take some time, unwind, unravel, your mind, and walk the labyrinth through Tilâ€™ it brings you back to you
Take some time, unwind, unravel, your mind, and walk the labyrinth through
Tilâ€™ it brings you back to you

I know youâ€™re lookinâ€™ for some change, but like the desert holdâ€™s the rain, for a dry spell or two, let me hold for you
And chase these lines, through our havoc, like a topographical map and then feeling everything youâ€™ve known let it bring you right back home

Take some time, unwind, unravel, your mind, and walk the labyrinth through

Awesome Guitar Solo Hereâ€¦

I know youâ€™re lookinâ€™ for some change, but like the desert holdâ€™s the rain, for a dry spell or two, let me hold for you
And chase these lines, through our havoc, like a topographical map and then feeling everything youâ€™ve known let it bring you right back home
Take some time, unwind, unravel, your mind, and walk the labyrinth through
