

Said It All

Take That

Ooh, when the tears fall away
And there's no conversation
There's nothing left to break
That's not already broken
You're staring into space
And every inch of silence
Been standing here for days
And days

Said it all

Nothing to say at all
Nothing to say that matters
Haven't we heard enough

Said it all

Nothing to say at all
Nothing to say that matters
Doesn't matter, anymore
In the sudden light of day
No weight of expectation
The hurt begins to fade

As you find a new direction
Been talking here for days
And days, and days

Said it all

Nothing to say at all
Nothing to say that matters
Haven't we heard enough

Said it all

Nothing to say at all
Nothing to say that matters
Doesn't matter, anymore, ooh
All of the miles of words we've spoken

All of the lines that got away
Didn't we take the time to say them all
All of the miles of words we've spoken
All of the lines that got away

Didn't we take the time to say them all

Said it all

Nothing to say at all

Nothing to say that matters
Haven't we heard enough
Said it all
Nothing to say at all
Nothing to say that matters
Haven't we said it all
