Things Are Gonna Be Alright

Acetone

You may try and try again
Not to be unsatisfied
Just squeezing by one more time
But how long do you go on
Believing things are gonna be alright?Not to decry the simple life
But lately I've been getting tired
Just getting by
Biding my timeNow I've always been so sure
Someday, someday
But how long do you go on
Believing things are gonna be alright?
(x2)
