

With Ravenous Hunger

Satyricon

Who made deceit the ultimate award?
Who told you, you're not poisoned?
I see the venom in your eyes
I see the snake coiling inside you You can't betray me, it's just an illusion
You can't stab me, or even touch me
I build the pain inside you
I spawned the snake
It will gradually tear you apart It will eat you from inside
No longer sweet revenge
No longer emotional triumph
Pity you, led to believe (in own willpower)
Pity you, (resting) on withered laurels
Can't you see, the world's on fire...
Can't you feel, you're getting burnt!
There's a day coming, for me to rip and to rape There's a winter coming, for you to be swallowed
Swallowed by emotional cold
Swallowed by a power much greater than yourself Who made deceit into the ultimate award?
Who told you, you're not poisoned?
I see the snake coiling inside you I see the venom in your eyes
You can't betray me, it's just an illusion
You can't stab me, or even touch me
I built the pain inside you
I spawned the snake
