

One Hundred Years (Rhino Studio Demo 12/81)

The Cure

It doesn't matter if we all die
Ambition in the back of a black car
In a high building there is so much to do
 Going home time
 A story on the radio
Something small falls out of your mouth
 And we laugh
A prayer for something better
 A prayer
For something betterPlease love me
 Meet my mother
 But the fear takes hold
Creeping up the stairs in the darkWaiting for the death blow
 Waiting for the death blow
 Waiting for the death blow
Stroking your hair as the patriots are shot
 Fighting for freedom on the television
Sharing the world with slaughtered pigs
 Have we got everything?
She struggles to get awayThe pain
 And the creeping feeling
 A little black haired girl
 Waiting for Saturday
The death of her father pushing her
Pushing her white face into the mirror
 Aching inside me
 And turn me round
 Just like the old days
 Just like the old days
 Just like the old days
Just like the old daysCaressing an old man
 And painting a lifeless face
Just a piece of new meat in a clean room
The soldiers close in under a yellow moon
 All shadows and deliverance
 Under a black flag
 A hundred years of blood
 Crimson
The ribbon tightens round my throat

I open my mouth
And my head bursts open
A sound like a tiger thrashing in the water
Thrashing in the water
Over and over
We die one after the other
Over and over
One after the other
One after the other
One after the other
One after the otherIt feels like a hundred years
One hundred years
