

Call on Me

The Bangles

Well, if you're feeling down, you know I'll be round
And you know that you can call on me
You'll wish you were dead, take a breath instead
Yeah, take a piece of everything you see And you know that the world was made for you
Life's in shape, so what're you gonna do
Your eyes are painted blue
Look again, you see it's true, yeah Your head's spinning round, your folks bring you down
But you know that you can call on me And you know that the world was made for you
Life's in shape, so what're you gonna do
Your eyes are painted blue
Look again, you see it's true, yeah Well, if you're feeling down, you know I'll be round
As you know that you can call on me Call on me
Call on me
(Call on me)
Call on me
(Call on me)
