

Somebody Else's Child

The Vaccines

I'm alright
Why'd you ask?
I'm uptight, I guess
Let it pass
I've never had much in common with you. You brought me up,
Gentle and mild
But I'm somebody else's,
Somebody else's child Full head of hair
Bright blue eyes
I got my nose, I'm told, from my
Mother's side
She took a lover that she barely knew. I let you down,
Wayward and wild
But I'm somebody else's,
Somebody else's child
