

Caesura

Revent

Everyone loses hope, youâ€™re not alone
Each moment feels the same as those before
And everyone turns the page a little late
The past that you just canâ€™t erase

As we play our funeral song and the future seems all wrong
Well we waited way too long to find us anyway back home

So you stand and wave goodbye
Youâ€™ve already wasted too much time

No one knows why people need routine to carry on
No one knows why itâ€™s so hard to be alone
Expectations canâ€™t be won, youâ€™re disappointing everyone
The same mistakes you make will trail on and on and onâ€¦

You stand and wave goodbye
Youâ€™ve already wasted so much time

There I stand and wave goodbye
And it all was just a glimmer in my eye
