

Passenger Seat

Stephen Speaks

I look at her and have to smile
As we go driving for a while
Her hair blowing in the open window of my car
And as we go I see the lights
I watch them glimmer in her eyes
In the darkness of the evening And I've got all that I need
Right here in the passenger seat
Oh and I can't keep my eyes on the road
Knowing that she's inches from me We stop to get something to drink
My mind pounds and I can't think
Scared to death to say I love her
Then a moon peeks from the clouds
Hear my heart that beats so loud
Trying to tell her simply That I've got all that I need
Right here in the passenger seat
Oh I can't keep my eyes on the road
Knowing that she's inches from me Oh and I've got all that I need
Right here in the passenger seat
Oh and I can't keep my eyes on the road
Knowing that she's inches from me Oh and I know
That this love grows Oh I've got all that I need
Right here in the passenger seat
Oh and I can't keep my eyes on the road
Knowing that she's inches from me And I've got all that I need
Right here in the passenger seat
Oh and I can't keep my eyes on the road
Knowing that she's inches from me
(2nd voice)
I look at her and have to smile
As we go driving for a while
Her hair blowing in the open window of my car
And as we go I see the lights
I watch them glimmer in her eyes
In the darkness of the evening And I've got all that I need
Right here in the passenger seat
Oh and I can't keep my eyes on the road
Knowing that she's inches from me
(2nd voice)
I look at her and have to smile

As we go driving for a while
Her hair blowing in the open window of my car
And as we go I see the lights
I watch them glimmer in her eyes
In the darkness of the evening And I've got all that I need
Right here in the passenger seat
(2nd voice)
I look at her and have to smile
As we go driving for a while
