

Demolition Man

Rizzle Kicks

I'm the demolition man and this is my demo so listen man...Yeah are you listenin'?

Rizzle kicks, killin' this in abit

Silly ears didn't think we'd bring it big

But we kinda did, let me find a brick

Lay that down, down to the ground

Now it's about time you found out there's a sound

Lurkin' inbetween the buildings, certainly discrete

But still we push to be heard,

Shouldn't be detoured

By the fact that people couldn't give a blur

Yeah with hammers and tools, we plan to rule the slander

Shake my hand yoI'm the demolition man and the is my demo so listen man

I'm the demo, demo, demo, demo, I'm, I'm, I'm the demolition man

I'm the demo, demo, demo, demo, I'm, I'm, I'm the demolition man

Ay yo, born derelish

Your nemesis,

My style has more decadence

Raw elegance, street fire

I am the 4th element

More adequate,

Let me please your mind your therapist

Torn ever since she left me

Let's get some more Stella's in

Born and a kiss no grammar sniff, I'm Luke your Anakin

More panicking rappers are advancing more vanishing.I'm the demolition man, can you please give me a reason to show my expertise

I'm the de, I'm, I'm, I'm the de, I'm the I'm the demolition man

I'm the de, I'm, I'm, I'm the de, I'm the I'm the demolition man

I'm the demo, demo, demo, demo, I'm, I'm, I'm the demolition man
