Wishes And Stars

Harper Simon

Everyone seems so certain
Everyone knows who they are
Everyone's got a mother and a father
They all seem so sure they're going far
They all got more friends than they can useExcept me 'cause I'm a fool
I'm as simple as a bee
As a melody in C
But it don't matter
There are more wishes than starsEvery guest
So pleased with themselves
They're brimming with success
Their whole life's been blessed
But it doesn't matterEveryone's been on a holiday in the sun
Or they just got back from one
All they do is just have fun
They all got more friends than they can useExcept me 'cause I'm a fool
I'm as simple as a bee
As a melody in C
But it don't matter
There are more wishes than starsI'm not too certain about many things
I'm not too sure who I am
I ain't got no mother and I ain't got no father
I ain't got no girlfriend to hold my handI'm slow like the trees when they grow
I'm sluggish like the ocean when it moves
I'm plain like water or like rain
But I shouldn't complain 'cause it don't matterThere are more wishes than stars
More wishes than stars
