

Ghosts

Trampled By Turtles

My transcription of the lyrics of "Ghosts":

(Transcribed from the CD plus two youtube videos, so there are likely some errors; some words I guessed...)We never could shake it

Like there's nothing to lose
All the hearts that were breaking
We pretended we knew There's blood on the hillside
The roots hold the landslide
Through pain and in young skies
I waited for you Oooo There were ghosts in the forest
And they're calling to you
Aw please just don't bore us
Whatever you do Never brighting by daylight
Never frightening by dark night
If I just keep it inside
I swear that it's true Through breakers at low tide
Rough places in long rides
I'm constantly shaking
With the echos of love Oooo
ooooo
