

Hurricane

Joe

Wind keeps beating at my window
But the night sky is clear and beautiful
Feels like there's a storm of love arriving
And I can't hold back these waves anymore Funny how I never saw it coming
In my head I thought I seen it all
There's no place left for my heart to be hiding
You're a force of nature tearing down these walls Hurricane
Hurricane
Beautiful destruction
Caught up in your velvet riptide
You take me away Hurricane
Hurricane
Reign of seduction
My sweet novacaine
My comfort, my pain
My hurricane Thought I built myself that perfect safe house
I always felt inside I was secure
It worked on everyone that came before me
But you found your way thru barricaded doors More and more I feel the pressure rising
Ever higher every time we touch
I know I won't prevail
I'm a match for nature's gail
And I have no place to go and wait it out Hurricane
Hurricane
Beautiful destruction
Caught up in your velvet riptide
You swept me away Hurricane
Hurricane
Reign of seduction
My sweet novacaine
My comfort, my pain
My hurricane In the theory of the storm
There's no safety line
No lighthouse in the distance to save me now
All I can do is fall in to you Hurricane
Hurricane
Beautiful destruction
Caught up in your velvet riptide
You swept me away Hurricane

Hurricane
Reign of seduction
My sweet novacaine
My comfort, my pain
My hurricane
