

Lovergirl

Teena Marie

Sugar pop
Funky popsCoffee, tea or me, baby, touch ole
My opening line might be a bit pass
But don't think that I don't know what I'm feeling for you
'Cause I got a vibe on you the first time that I saw you, saw youI need your love and I won't bring no pain
A little birdie told me that you feel the same
I'm for the real and for you, I'm true blue
Let's make a deal, sugar, all I want to do is be your one and only loverI just want to be your lover girl
I just want to rock your world
Hey, hey, heyHook, line and sinker baby, that's how you caught me
My second verse might be a bit old hat
But don't think that I don't know what it's doing to me
'Cause I got a vibe on you the first time you saw through me, through meI need your love and I won't bring no pain
A little birdie told me that you feel the same
I'm for the real and for you, I'm true blue
Let's make a deal, sugar, all I want to do is be your one and only loverI just want to be your lover girl
I just want to rock your world
Hey, hey, heyI just want to be your lover girl
I just want to rock your world
Hey, hey, heyBaby, let me groove you
Let me groove into your love
I just want to be your lover girlLet me prove it to you
Baby, let me rock your world
I just want to rock your worldBaby, let me soothe you
Let me smooth into your love
I just want to be your lover girlLet me prove it to you
Baby, let me rock your world
I just want to rock your worldCoffee, tea or me, baby, touch ole
My opening line might be a bit pass
But don't think that I don't know what I'm feeling for you
'Cause I got a vibe on you the first time that I saw you, whoa
