Run Away

For All Those Sleeping

Do you hear the west coast?
It's calling out our names
I know you're scared
But soon you know that it will be too late
I'll drive all night, do whatever it takes
To hold you close and watch the sunset after every day
When all we have is tonight
A dream and a suitcase

Run away, take my hand, and I will never let go
And don't say that we will always have tomorrow
Because we're only young and in love once in our lives
Please don't wait this is our chance to escape
Run away

Do you hear the east coast?
It's calling out our names
I know you're scared
But it's a choice that we have to make
I'll drive all night, do whatever it takes
To hold you close and watch the sunrise to start every day
When all we have is tonight
A dream and a suitcase

Run away, take my hand, and I will never let go
And don't say that we will always have tomorrow
Because we're only young and in love once in our lives
Please don't wait this is our chance to escape
Run away

And I can't wait
We've been waiting our whole lives
But tonight feels so right

Run away, take my hand, and I will never let go
And don't say that we will always have tomorrow
Because we're only young and in love once in our lives
Please don't wait this is our chance to escape

Run away, take my hand, and I will never let go

And don't say that we will always have tomorrow
Because we're only young and in love once in our lives
Please don't wait this is our chance to escape
Run away
