I Don't Dance

Nawlage

I don't wanna grow up
I dont wanna see sex and the city
Lust for a minute
I don't wanna do that
I don't wanna let go on the floor tonight
And I can't hear nothing but beats and sounds
That don't feel good inside
I got jeans too tight It's all too loud
My feet can't hear the orders from my mind
I don't dance cause tonight you love somebody
Somebody New
I don't dance cause the moves don't want my body
I'll learn to hate them too

Now you dance to our songs - I need them too
I don't dance cause tonight you love somebody new
I don't need feedback
I know that I'm stuck with the past
This might last
I don't need restart
I don't wanna re-oil myself tonight
I know it's a little bit sad and strange
I stay alone in the shade
I don't dance I feel betrayed
Somebody else is playing with my babe
Now the crowd goes wild it's such a mess
And I can't escape this emptiness
