Walk Away

Throwdown

I don't fucking need you. I only hate you. won't tell you twice that your Time is spent you're just a coward in your safe place. well your security
Hangs by a thread. no more threats. this promise is all I can give. you Disrespect this. you disrespect us. but not again as long as I live. fuck you,
Your friends and your life. respect is give and take in my eyes. you've Scarred everything you are. but you'll never scar my pride. you run your fucking
Mouth. when I'm not around there's just so much to say. you walk too fucking proud.
Now fess up or just walk the other way. fuck you, your friends and your life.
Respect is give and take in my eyes. you've scarred everything you are. but You'll never scar my pride. you run your fucking mouth. when I'm not around There's just so much to say. you walk too fucking proud. now fess up or just Walk the other way. no more threats this time. no more threats. just walk
The other way. no more threats. just this promise as long as I live. no more
Threats. you only get the respect that you give
