Stolen Car

Shane Nicholson

I wish I knew what I should say
I wish I knew that you would stay
I wish I knew how to live
I wish that I had more to give
I wish I knew what you were thinking
Before I start sinking and drift awayJust like a thief in a fast stolen car
You've been running straight for the sunI wish that I could take your lead
I wish that I was all you need
I wish that I could understand
I wish that I was more a man
I wish I knew why I was waiting
Before I start fading and drift awayJust like a thief in a fast stolen car
You've been running straight for the sunI hope I know what I should say
I hope I know that you will stay
I hope I never drift awayJust like a thief in a fast stolen car
You've been running straight for the sun
And I'm just like a page in a book no one's reading
I'm hiding here from the sun
I'll be hiding here from the sunFrom the sun, from the sun
From the sun in a fast stolen car
Fast stolen car from the sun
In a fast stolen car
In a fast stolen car
Fast stolen
