

Washing The World Away

Crossfade

When will this all be over
How come this never ends
This room keeps closing in on me
This pain could all be over
If I just blinked an eye
Keep holding on to some star
That stops me from
Washing the world away
Hey-yeah hey-yeah
Washing the world away
Hey-yeah hey-yeah
Washing the world away
Why can't I get through today
Feeling blind there's only me to blame
But still I find, I tried to hide
Maybe in time, I'll find my way
I feel that no one understands me
Feel so alone
Does anyone feel the way I do
(I just wanna take all this love)
This pain could all be over
If I just blinked an eye
Keep holding on to some star
That stops me from
Washing the world away
Hey-yeah hey-yeah
Washing the world away
Hey-yeah hey-yeah
Washing the world away
So how can I get through today
Feeling blind there's only me to blame
But still I find, I tried to hide
Maybe in time, I'll find my way
I don't think I'll make it through today
Feeling blind there's only me to blame
But still I find, I tried to hide
Maybe this time, I'll find my way
