

Streets of Gold

Skyblew

(Verse 1)

Tell me what's the difference between living and dreaming?
Reading the book of life i'm just tryna find meaning while i'm leaning on the dock of bay like Otis Redding, they'll lose their brains just for a buzz see the beheading?
And we heading straight for end times and armageddon
All the wrongs that I done i'm just hoping that I get in to Heaven Let me chill just expanding my thoughts everything comes with a price i'm just cutting the cost See I don't wanna take a loss us gamers we competitive my songs mellow heard a fellow call it a sedative it's cool I'm fighting for these souls on the line like shoes on the power lines I could build a shrine from these gems like i'm dropping a clumsy jeweler or like unlucky Sonic you ain't met nobody cooler.
Just my beliefs I ain't tryna shove the lord at you but in this crazy world it gives me something to look forward to you know?[Chorus] Since a youngin' I was always told that Heaven promise it'll be streets of gold Streets of gold
it's in my soul yo I always know, that i'll be walking on them streets of gold Streets of gold!(Verse 2) No way it's gold plated I know you thinking that my views must be so jaded But think about a Paradise with no stress and no death no depressed Facebook statues so blessed oh yes I guess i'm living in a fantasy No better place for me and my family if so cool but for now let a man dream he a be a king cuz growing up I didn't have things to hope for asking haven't I found love yet?
Hands on text books it's such a touchy subject And we ain't seeing eye to eye like Powerline life's a goofy movie we laugh while the hours flying Cuz time pass like a bid became a man from kid thought of Heaven now i'm tryna fix the things that I did in the past cuz your legacy will last long in this pyramid scheme unaware of the capstone(Verse 3)

Refer to the book of life when I need advice heard you only live once but I could of died twice ain't that nice? I don't believe the propaganda since i'm positive I open myself up to the slander Take a gander in my mind stars made of emerald walking on clouds wings off of principle basically invincible racism diminished no killing each other or police youth replenished by the spiritual waters waking up invigorated Free to live as one cuz we now liberated from the ties that bind we newly designed finding forever common since that I knew we could find Flying over the minds limitations we need renovations a part of me meant for this generation cuz who gone be voice of reason through the seasons?
I say the government deceiving they call it treason
