I'm Actin' Different

Joe Walsh

I'm actin' different but I'm acting in the same old way.
I'm actin' different, different, but I have not changed.
What can about bright lights?
Dressing room roses, opening night, butterflies?
I'm actin' different but I'm acting in the same old way.
(Actin' different, different)
I'm actin' different but I'm acting in the same old way
Like an understudy actor in a closed-off Broadway play.
Nothing to say about bright lights, stage fright,
Dressing room roses, opening night, butterflies and champagne
I'm actin' different but I have not changed
(Never gonna change, never gonna change
(Never gonna change, never gonna change
Ohhh..I haven't changed
I'm actin' different but I'm acting in the same old way
I'm actin' different but I'm acting in the same old way
(I'm actin' different, different)
