The Word Alive

So you think you can get rid of me?
I'll take your place at the head of this dynasty I am the reason you're alive?
?You need to look back and see
How you treated me, how you treated me
When you bite off the hand that feeds
You'll live without what you truly need Sacrificing everything, but does it even mean anything
Any moment this could all be gone,
Without respect it won't be long Have you had enough of me?
You act like I'm something you can throw away You need to look back and see
How you treated me, how you treated me
When you bite off the hand that feeds
You'll live without what you truly need Sacrificing everything, (?)
But does it even mean anything (?) I am the reason you can't run away
I am the reason you can't escape
Give up you're mine
You're terrible inside
I am the reason you're alive I am the reason you're alive You need to look back and see
How you treated me, how you treated me
You need to look back and see
How you treated me, how you treated me
When you bite off the hand that feeds
You'll live without what you truly need Sacrificing everything,
But does it even mean anything
