We Get High

Fabolous

When I start to care
Then I find there is no one there
But I think of you and I know
We are something new
We get higher and higher
Crazy blue, like St Elmo's Fire
Love is so sharp and flat
That its hard to know just where you atWe get higher and higher
Crazy blue
Like St Elmo's Fire
Love is so sharp and flat
That its hard to know just where you atWe get higher and higher
Crazy blue
Like St Elmo's Fire
Love is so sharp and flat
That its hard to know just where you at
We get highStimulate your mind girl
It's Friday
You ain't got shit to do
I put you on some real shit
If ain't scared to take a hit or two
Stay away from that Reggie
Can't deal with them middle men
Who gives a fuck if he keep em clean
You can't ride on them Lil tens
They say they got, they don't got
They don't seem to feel no guilt
Got peanut butter but no jelly
Got cereal but no milk
Where I'm from that's a half ass nigga
Half of the time
O' half past nigga
Mad cause they can't get down with the team
Still sitting at the end of the draft ass nigga
Getting high means low life's
Dead the chumps give them no life
Cut em loose
Keep yo knife
Don't meet a hoe

And make her yo wife
Don't make a hoe yo husband either
How to win a game and you playing with a cheater
I be tellin em you can't change niggas
Better off keepin that change for the meterWe get higher and higher
Crazy blue
Like St Elmos Fire
Love is so sharp and flat
That its hard to know just where you atWe get higher and higher
Crazy blue
Like St Elmos Fire
Love is so sharp and flat
That its hard to know just where you at

Saying that nay nother

You hoes way past half bake
If I got pay to hear chicks lie
Would of made more cheese than Kraft make
And these niggas be actin up
Rih Rih must be serious
Wonder what the shit hitting for
Real niggas is curious
These niggas stuck on my old joint
Already know how the high feels
Let a chick know she is not low
Even though she in high heels
6 Hunded for the gas
That ain't nothing but a high bill
Bitch don't be a high kill
Cause you know over hereWe get higher and higher
Crazy blue

Love is so sharp and flat
That its hard to know just where you atWe get higher and higher

Love is so sharp and flat
That its hard to know just where you atWe get high
