All for One

Headstone Epitaph

[Martin: step by step i added the parts together and had] [amazing results, cool, huh? A vagabond tells a story] [About friendship and unity which is much more important than money.][vers:]
we live on the sidewalk on the path to hell
seven golden years
for our farewell
it is not that easy
to move from place to place where we are
begins a scornfull chase
we are not envited
we're so pitiful
far away from home
and far off any rule [ref:]
we all live under the sun one for all and all for one allthough bad weather
and cold and dirty air
we don't give up in despair [vers:]
sometimes more satisfying belonging to the poor
your friends are very close to you for sure in the end don't regret cause we are feeling good we don't like the kings just robin hood
we are not envited
we're so pitiful
closer to our friends and closer to the rule

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/