where are you now
could there be one more time, juliet

it seems so long since you came when I called, julietstranded love to the sound of dogs

and my make-up
don't care for stranded love and I break out
I reveal myself
for a new life
and to be high on love againstranded lovestranded love
