

Dangerous (ft. Howard Jones)

Within Temptation

I know I won't change, I have tried
Was feeling so caged, hands tied
I can't find anything feeling so right, it's blinding hope
The Reaper is close, save a spot
A matter of time, can't deny
I won't try to run, run, run
This destiny's mine
The countdown has begun
the walls are falling down
my life is on the line
the fear is mine
It's dangerous to sacrifice
It makes your blood run to throw the dice
It's dangerous, it's what you like
It's what you'll die for to live this life
We're going on and we'll never stop
We're going on till our worlds collide
It's dangerous
So dangerous
Dangerous
I know it's not safe, close my eyes
I search for the edge of Earth
'cause that's the only place I'll ever find that makes me hope
A thief in the night, out of sight
It's out there waiting to ignite the favor will rise, rise, rise taking over my mind
The countdown has begun
the walls are falling down
my life is on the line
the fear is mine
It's dangerous to sacrifice
It makes your blood run to throw the dice
It's dangerous, it's what you like
It's what you'll die for to live this life
We're going on and we'll never stop
We're going on till our worlds collide
It's dangerous
So dangerous
Dangerous
Nothing matters anyhow
It's like I'm floating on the ground
Into the hands, there I dive
With my life flashing by Like the time is slowing down
When the world is out of sight
All the memories in my mind

Won't leave me behind
It's dangerous, (dangerous)
It's dangerous, (dangerous)
It's dangerous! It's dangerous to sacrifice
It makes your blood run to throw the dice
It's dangerous, it's what you['re] like
It's what you'll die for to live this life
We're going on and we'll never stop
We're going on till our worlds collide
It's dangerous
So dangerous
Dangerous
