Nigga you should do that
Nigga you're so amazing
The body says come here
I've been watching you
Be sure, baby, this is what I want
She don't mind
She's so fineShe looks good and she knows it
She looks good and she knows it
She looks good and she knows it
She looks good and she knows it
She looks good and she knows it
She looks good and she knows itShe looks good
And she ain't scared to let the whole world know it
Not much of a smoker
She drinks liquor straight from the rocks
You can talk about her attitude
No way has she expressed gratitude
Infatuated with no physical
Think of falling in love with her attitude
And she's attracted to final things like cocaineGot to slide and make a nigga melt
I get it, I get it
I know I'm trying
This would might be just the prototypeNigga you should do that
Nigga you're so amazing
The body says come here
I've been watching you
Be sure, baby, this is what I want
She don't mind
She's so fineShe looks good and she knows it
She looks good and she knows it
She looks good and she knows it
She looks good and she knows it
She looks good and she knows it
She looks good and she knows itJust trying to say that I love how she's feeling
How she me kissing and touchin
