

Right Alright

Shy Girls

So much love in them tears
Or at least that's what i feel
Mascara down to ya heels
Got Mary Manson in here
Why you crying in the bed girl?
Shouldn't we be lovin' instead?
But we do, what we do, when we do
Yeah we do what we do yeah I just wanna make it right, alright?
Alright. Right, alright
I can even tell you you were right, alright?
Alright. Right, alright
Can we make this thing right, alright?
Alright. Right, alright
I know we got this right. Alright. Right. Alright
Lots of hugs and appeals
Your court can make me appear
I just got love for you girl
I got some things i gotta work on
So much love in that scream
I know you're trying to be mean
But all I see is your sheen
Maybe you hidin' the seam
Put down your light saber beam
I ain't Darth Vader baby Cuz I'm rural and you urban Maybe that's why we're so uncertain
Turbulent love is a burden
Better than suburban versions though
I think you may be right, alright?
Alright. Right. Alright
I know you want me right, alright
Alright. Right, alright
So tip me to the right, alright
Alright. Right, alright
I wanna do it right, alright
Alright. Right, alright
