Anthony Raneri

Single file you fall into
Another empty bottle
Growing larger, trapped inside
And now you cannot swallow all your prideYou'll fall asleep alone tonight
With one day less until you die
Until you dieOne more time
You'll confirm all our suspicions
While you close your eyes and lieYou and I
Will continue to discover
That we're wasting so much timeSilver rings piercing the skin
We know you're keeping secrets
Horizontal memories
Too many just to regret deep insideYou'll fall asleep with them tonight
Penetrating in your mind
And not just tonightOne more time
You'll confirm all our suspicions
While you close your eyes and lieYou and I
Will continue to discover
That we're wasting so much timeLooking back
All the stupid drama
That painted my world blackHolding hands was the gateway drug
That led to mess I'm in
But I won't give up, I won't lie down
As you take away my friendsDon't try to change me now
(I know I've lost your heart, I might never get it back)Don't start to judge me now
(If you could peer into my past, you'd see
Just how much love I've lacked)There's been a hundred lows
But there has been a million highs
And now we're wasting so much time
