Just Like You

Athenaeum

I want to see the world through your eyes
And know exactly what it's like to be with me
I want to know the world through your mind
Cause I've been missing out on something
I know I want to find
And it's so hard to be alone
When you're the only one that ever knows
And it's so hard to be alone
When you don't even know who I am
And I want to be just like you
And take my life just like a book and fold it in two
And I want to know how it feels to be you
When my life is so uncertain and I don't know what to doI'll just be you
I want to see the world through your eyes
And know exactly what it's like to be with me
I want to know the world through your mind
Cause I've been missing out on something
I know I want to find
And it's so hard to be alone
When you're the only one that ever knows
And it's so hard to be alone
When you don't even know who I am
And I want to be just like you
And take my life just like a book and fold it in two
And I want to know how it feels to be you
When my life is so uncertain and I don't know what to do
I'll just be you
