

Viva L'amour

Sabina

Asked a man for a light and he caught fire Bought him a ticket I was instantly hired Bargained for a price
Everybody got fired Drank a lot of coffee only to be tired Thought I found a friend but the man was for hire I lent him a hand and led him to the fire of desireAmour Viva l'AmourOh yes my love such is the nature of man Just when you thought that you've looked through them A plain becomes a valley and a mountain the sea And it really was them who were looking through meI pray I'm a liar at the end of this day Until the wind has carried all my lies away Leave the answers with the beggars and buyers I've asked you for a kiss and You've set my on fire with desireAmour Viva L'AmourI saw a fire burning in the night and a Mad man fire in his eyes
I can't turn this man away
Es mi amigo
It has to stay this way okay
