8 Ball

Underworld

Today, today I saw a man Today I saw a man Using an empty whiskey flask as a walkie talkieToday, today I saw a man Today I saw a man With a flaming 8 ball tattooed on his armTodayToday, today I saw a man Today I saw a man Using an empty whiskey flask as a walkie talkieToday I met a man Who threw his arms around me And I've given, and I've givenToday Today TodayToday Today TodayWe laughed, we laughed Waiting for a train For a few into the city, secondsToday, that white stuff That white stuff Waiting for the trainThat stuff into the city That's what makes me feelToday Feel, feel Today Feel happy
