The Taste, The Touch

Asteria

So this is it, the feeling that I've missed
A subtle kind of pain that keeps me from sleep
I try to explain how you touch drives me insane
And I can't spend a night without wishing I was with you(chorus)
I wanna tell you a secret
And leave it on your lips
Wanna sing it through your body
Wanna tell it through this kiss
If I told you my secret
Would you swear to keep it?
Would you swear to keep it?Watching you dance and seeing you smile Still getting butterflies every once in a while Feelings exist I'm falling twist on lust
a choice to care
a wish to touch(Chorus)
I wanna tell you a secret
And leave it on your lips
Wanna sing it through your body
Wanna tell it through this kiss
If I told you my secret
Would you swear to keep it?
Would you swear to keep it?When you say never I'll say lie
When you say always I'll say true
When you say love I'll say you
I'll say you
I'll say you
I'll say you
I'll say you(Chorus)
I wanna tell you a secret
And leave it on your lips
Wanna sing it through your body
Wanna tell it through this kiss
If I told you my secret
Would you swear to keep it?
Would you swear to keep it?
