Mouse tall wood'n houses
'n plastic lions & kangaroos a stainy sky blue merry-go-round the origin of my worldTwo buckets fulls of sand and one half full of rain grass seems carpet sea and jungle the birds' lyrics...the bees'humming a distant monster barkingA headless and pale onearmed knight came along with him when called for supper
to conquer all hights
don't fear no fightto conquer all nights 'till the end of the lightHillitop high dreaming castles and a princess of beauty & kind a head full of dreams and a sky full of stars noone cares about the dawna flyinn' white horse rides along butch ofpromises on its back The red man will never ride a car and a Yogi-(bear) ever seeks for picnic basketsA headless and pale onearmed knight
don't fear no fight to conquer all nights
'till the end of the light
