When Saints Go Machine

Dear once I was dear
A promise to wake up blood
Pin your hate on my painLoose temper don't speak
Remind me I'm a puppet too
Remind me I'm a puppet
Assembled by speed
Remind me I'm a puppet too
Remind me I'm a puppetBecome more than a pond or a crook
Become more than a pond or a crook
Symptom of a dying breedSweet AlgolagniaDear once I was dear
You're the web around my bed
Punch a hole in my head
Crick in my brain while I'm hereDear once I wasYou should have known me then
Every building in this town
Is a sad one
Key torn from keeperLoose temper don't speak
Remind me I'm a puppet too
Remind me I'm a puppet
Assembled by speed
Remind me I'm a puppet too
Remind me I'm a puppetBecome more than a pond or a crook
Become more than a pond or a crook
Symptom of a dying breed
I am my maker
All switches thrown
Can't be long before that ship blows
Every cut is a close callSweet AlgolagniaI am my maker
All switches thrown
Can't be long before that ship blows
Every cut is a close callBecome more than a pond or a crook
Become more than a pond or a crook
Symptom of a dying breed
