Something You Misplaced

Hellogoodbye

Maybe it's something you misplaced
Maybe I'll see it in your face
Could you have left it in your coat?
Could you have left it in your coat?
Maybe it's somewhere in a drawer
Sometimes those things can get ignored
I hadn't thought about it much
I hadn't thought about it much
But if your love returns to me
If what's not turns out to be
Oh, you don't know
No, you don't know
I guess it started to make sense
We were just sitting on the fence
There wasn't writing on the wall
There wasn't anything at all, all, all, all
But if your love returns to me
If what's not turns out to be
Oh, you don't know
No, you don't know
But if your love returns to me
If what's not turns out to be
Oh, you don't know
No, you don't know
No, you don't know
No, you don't know
No, you don't know
No, you don't know
No, you don't know
