

I'm Alive

A Change of Pace

Im alive when Im missing youIm heading out for the lone star state
And flying over Santa Fe
Im looking out at a mountain range
I brace myself for the life I made
Were too young at heart, hoping for one more dayThis airport terminal can't see
Everything you mean to meIm alive when Im missing you
Im alive but too far
Im alive when Im missing you
Im alive but too far from your roomI remember I'm not sleeping
Hold on tight, come with me
I left my heart on your bed sheets
Not knowing what it means to be here
On a plane leaving youThis airport terminal cant see
Everywhere I wish, youd beIm alive when Im missing you
Im alive but too far
Im alive when Im missing you
Im alive but too far from your roomGirl, you cant make me stay
Im saying what I have to say
Know you were just a phase
A piece of who I am todayJust another check mark
On my list of things that I regret
Youre another check mark
On my list of things that I regretIm alive when Im missing you
Im alive but not missing you
Im alive and I sleep fine
Im alive but not missing you
Im alive and I sleep fine in my own room
