

I Will Come Through

Sister Hazel

If you save you love me
I will be a fortunate man
Drop your inhibitions
Lay them on the ground
Where you standThe only thing
I'll change is everything
Oh, come on won't you let me
I will lift you upMaybe I'm
Not very pretty
But I'm all that I gotSo if you think
About letting me in
You'll never worry
About nothing againIf you let me love you
I will come through
If you let me love you
I will come throughIf you let me love you
I will come through
I will come through
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeahI'll celebrate you woman
Carry you above everyone, yeah
And in the shady hours
I will be your midnight sunThe only thing
I'll change is everything
Oh, baby won't you let me
I will lift you upI'd rather spend
A moment with you
Than forever with anyoneSo if you think
About letting me in
You'll never worry
About nothing againIf you let me love you
I will come through
If you let me love you
I will come throughIf you let me love you
I will come through
I will come through
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeahSo if your gonna let me
I will come through
If you let me love you
I will come throughIf you let me love you

I will come through
I will come through
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeahLet me love you
I will come through
Let me love you
I will come throughLet me love you
I will come through
Let me love you
I will come through
