

Shine the Light

Reverend and the Makers

I dream of the Euromillions, I dreamed I scoop the lot
And I have two words for my boss and the second one is off.
But I had fifty lucky dips, so Arthur, Guinevere,
Which one of you ÆŒ™s allowed to stamp my passport out of here.Shine
Shine the light of luck on me tonight.
I want you to shine, shine the light of luck on me tonight(Let'ÆŒ™s go)I have already spent it ten times over in my head,
I'ÆŒ™d swap this Fiat Punto for a yacht down on the Med.
Of course I'ÆŒ™d see my mother (can'ÆŒ™t work out what he says here)
But I'd see my fair weathered friends more than I'd go for MumsShine
Shine the light of luck on me tonight.
I want you to shine, shine the light of luck on me tonightI'ÆŒ™ve spent eight gas bills with change on big thunderballs.
But none of my numbers have come up at all.
Life is a lottery, we play if we like and old lady luck might be shining her light.Shine a light
Shine a light
Shine the light
Shine a light
Shine a light
Shine the light
Shine
Shine the light of luck on me tonight.
Shine
Shine the light of luck on me tonight.
