Anybody Else But You

D-side

Well I did it again we're not talking and then
You keep throwing things and starting a fight
It's been hell of a day and it doesn't look much better tonight, oh
No
Cause I'll be sleeping alone, I'll be out in the could
And I still won't have a clue,
I swear I'd just walk away
If it was anybody else but you
It was anybody else
Slammed the door to the car, but I won't get too far
Cause I didn't bother to take the keys
By the time I got back
It's all over and you're smiling at me
And I know that no one tears at my heart
Even when were apart,
Or can hurt me the way that you do
I swear I'd just walk away,
If it was anybody but you
My love,

I say I'm sorry
You say forget it
I say I need you
That doesn't cut it
You got me down on my knees
But I do it for love
I've been sleeping alone, I've been out in the cold
And I still won't have a clue,
I swear I'd just walk away
If it was anybody else but you
My love if it was anybody else
Anybody else
Well I did it again we're not talking and then
You keep throwing things and starting a fight
