

Degenerate (with new Chris Barretto's vocals)

Monuments

Lives dismantled

Piece by piece

shout!

Before our eyes

Powers disguise the truth

while we decline We are useful idiots

and every time we think it's gonna change they're fuckin with us Disaster makes them grip

Much harder round our necks

Discontent is all around

Having lost all physical and mental qualities I'm not considered to be normal or desirable I will degenerate back to a mindless fuck like a decaying human parasite Life's suicide Why have all of our rights been violent in their deaths ?

Why are we are so benign and motionless on request ?

Oh when did they cease to protect individual rights forever we need They're breaking us up from inside They start by erasing our memories to claim riches like spinal sinews tearing. Old cultures replaced.

Invent new history we forget what really was, in the struggle of man against power man will fall every time Why have all of our rights been violent in their deaths ?

Why are we are so benign and motionless on request ?

Oh when did they cease to protect individual rights forever we need.

They're breaking us up from inside.

This is the day, this is the day we all die.

This is the day, this is the day we all.

This is the day, this is the day we all die.

This is the day, we leave this sick world behind. Why can't I take a piece of your life, a piece of your life.
