

You Were Always There

Lyle Lovett

Sun comes up, the world goes round and round
Theres no bad luck, it's just the luck you found
You steal away into a lonesome sun
Another day is lowered in the ground I feel my heartbeat, its pounding in my head
I hear the hooves beat, they must be drawing near
I feel the wind blow, its rushing through my hair
Out in the shadows your face is everywhere You were standing there beside me
Right where you're supposed to be right now
Now there's no one left to guide me
Tell me now what I am supposed to do?
Oh, what I am supposed to do? You were always there
You were always there
You were always there
You were always there A new horizon its all supposed to be
I close my eyes, I look at what I see
I hear the laughing and crying from above
Its just the voice, eternal hope and love You were standing there beside me
Right where you're supposed to be right now
Now there's no one left to guide me
Tell me now what I am supposed to do?
Oh, what I am supposed to do? You were always there
You were always there
You were always there
You were always there You were always there
You were always there
You were always there
You were always there
You were always there You were always there
You were always there
You were always there
