

Chosen

Adagio

[Lyrics/Forte - Music/Forte][Verse 1]

I'm lost in nowhere, I cannot see

What's inside of me

Some changes appear I can feel,

I'm coming alive[Bridge]

My eyes are wide,

Opened to this brand new world,

I'm not supposed to bleed[Refrain]

Only my eyes can see your world, like it is,

Blinded by innocence, see the moon fading out to black

Leave out your mind

And if I am the chosen one, I will try

To help you to understand, the silence can sometimes be your friend

Whisper your fears[Verse 1]

Winter's breath leaves a cold wind on my face

My believing thoughts,

Decrease in shapes of ghostly sadness

I've failed out of weakness[Bridge]

My eyes are wide,

Opened to this brand new world,

I'm not supposed to bleed[Refrain]

Only my eyes can see your world, like it is,

Blinded by innocence, see the moon fading out to black

Leave out your mind

And if I am the chosen one, I will try

To help you to understand, the silence can sometimes be your friend

Whisper your fears
